

Which Class Is Right for My Child?

Pre-Ballet (3-4)/Tap/Jazz (3-4)

- For children ages 3 and 4 years old
- A child must be the minimum age within a month of the start of the session
- The child must be fully day time potty trained before the first class.

Pre-Ballet (5-7), Tap/Jazz (5-7)

- For children ages 5, 6 and 7 years old.
- A child must be the minimum age within a month of the start of the session
- Level A classes are for brand new dancers or for returning dancers with less experience.
- Level B classes are for dancers who have already been through at least a year of an “A” level class of the same genre and have been recommended up or have tested into that level.
- Level AB classes are a mix of both categories above.

Teen/Adult Classes

- Teen/Adult classes are for ages 11+.
- No is experience required.
- A dancer must be the minimum age within a month of the start of the session.

Level I Classes

- Level I classes are for ages 7 and up
- A child must be the minimum age within a month of the start of the session
- Level A classes are for brand new dancers or for returning dancers with less experience.
- Level B classes are for dancers who have already been through an “A” level class of the same genre and have been recommended up or have tested into that level.
- Level AB classes are a mix of both categories above.
- Contemporary I and Musical Theatre I/II require at least a year experience in ballet or jazz and are by audition.

Level II and Above Classes

These classes require teacher permission. Dancers will be recommended into these levels by their previous instructor.

If you are new to the studio, but have dance experience, please contact dance@rivercitychristian.org or 916-861-1650 for a level recommendation.