

Which Class Is Right for My Child?

Pre-Ballet (3-4)/Tap/Jazz (3-4)

- For children ages 3 and 4 years old
- A child must be the minimum age within a month of the start of the session
- The child must be fully day time potty trained before the first class.

Pre-Ballet (5-7), Tap/Jazz (5-7)

- For children ages 5, 6 and 7 years old.
- A child must be the minimum age within a month of the start of the session

Teen/Adult Classes

- Teen/Adult classes are for ages 11+.
- No is experience required.
- A dancer must be the minimum age within a month of the start of the session.

Level I Classes

- Ballet IA and Jazz IA are for ages 7 and up.
- Ballet IAB is for students 7 and up continuing at the Ballet IA level or moving up from another Ballet IA class with permission from an instructor.
- A child must be the minimum age within a month of the start of the session.
- Contemporary I and Musical Theatre I are for ages 8 and up and require at least a year experience in level one ballet and jazz and are by audition. A level I ballet or jazz class must be taken along with this class. If your child meets the criteria and wants to audition, register for the class and the first month will serve as an audition.

Level II and Above Classes

These classes require teacher permission. Dancers will be recommended into these levels by their previous instructor.

If you are new to the studio, but have dance experience, please contact dance@rivercitychristian.org or 916-861-1650 for a level recommendation.